

ROME – 9/10 November 2012

PROGRAMME

Introduction and greetings by Father François-Xavier DUMORTIER, Rector of the Gregorian University

Reading of a message from Cardinal Gianfranco RAVASI, President of the Pontifical Council for Culture

Opening by Cardinal Paul POUPARD, President Emeritus of the Pontifical Council for Culture

Greetings by Annamaria TASSONE-BERNARDI, Chairwoman of the Italian Teilhard de Chardin Association

'Starting from a record of the different world religions, the appropriateness of Teilhard's vision' by Gérard DONNADIEU, Chairman of the French Teilhard de Chardin Association.

1. Pierre Teilhard, an open-mindedness to interreligious questions (Luciano Mazzoni-Benoni, Italy)
2. Pierre Teilhard at the heart of the World : a dialogue with non-believers (Evelyne Maurice, France)
3. The impact of cybernetics on a Teilhardian vision of the world (Fr Antonio Spadaro, Italy)
4. A new step for humanization in economic, cultural and social relations: the ultra-human (David Grumett, UK)
5. Discernment, responsibility and action in the light of Gaudium et Spes and Father Teilhard (Rosino Gibellini, Italy)
6. For a total development of man: "male and female created He them" (Annamaria Tassone-Bernardi, Italy)
7. The Church in the face of the contemporary claim for freedom (Marie-Jeanne Coutagne, France)
8. The spiritual necessity of the world (Fr Alfredo Dinis, Portugal)
9. The contribution of Teilhard de Chardin's thought to the new fields of evangelization (Mgr André Dupleix, France)
10. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Henri de Lubac faced with the challenge of the Council Vatican II (Mgr Eric de Moulins-Beaufort, France)
11. A planetary vision of mankind: the noosphere (Fr Agustin Udias, Spain)
12. The evolving vision of the world and cosmic Christ (Fr. Thierry Magnin, France)

Conclusion by Cardinal Paul POUPARD

MASS based on Teilhard's Mass on the World