In his long and distinguished career Christopher F. Mooney has served as a Jesuit priest, theologian, lawyer, educator, administrator, author, and Teilhardian scholar. Among his several degrees are a doctorate in theology from the Catholic University of Paris and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Fr. Mooney was ordained a priest of the Society of Jesus in 1957. After doctoral studies he joined Fordham University to teach theology and in 1965 was named Chair of the Department. From 1969 to 1974 he was the President of Woodstock College. Following legal studies in the mid-1970s he served for two years as the Assistant Dean of the University of Pennsylvania Law School. From 1980 to 1987 Fr. Mooney was the Academic Vice President of Fairfield University and is presently Professor of Religious Studies there.

Among his many books and articles is the classic Teilhard de Chardin and the Mystery of Christ (Harper & Row, 1966), which won the National Catholic Book Award. Fr. Mooney's most recent work is Boundaries Dimly Perceived: Law, Religion, Education and the Common Good (University of Notre Dame Press, 1990). This study first appeared in the June 1990 issue of the journal Theological Studies.
