John Ryan is a therapist in private practice in Port Jefferson, New York and teaches philosophy at several New York area universities. He first became acquainted with the work of Teilhard de Chardin in the 1950s when he read The Divine Milieu. Later, when teaching at Fordham in the 1960s, he worked through The Phenomenon of Man. Recently he returned to Teilhard through the lens of psychotherapy, interested in the convergences of psychology, religion and spirituality.
