Jean Maalouf holds a Doctorate in Science des Religions/Philosophie from Paris-Sorbonne University. He is best known for his studies in spirituality, education, peace, ecology, and various philosophical and social issues. He wrote especially for Revue des Sciences Philosophies et Theologiques (Paris), The Catechist’s Connection (Kansas City), and Spirit & Life (Tucson, AZ). His most recent books are Le Mystere du Mal dans l’Oeuvre de Teilhard de Chardin (Cerf, France) Touch a Single Leaf. Teilhard and Peace (Mulberry Books, France), Bold Prayers from the Heart and Jesus Laughed and Other Reflections on Being Human (Sheed & Ward, U.S.A.).