

Ewert H. Cousins

Ewert H. Cousins is Emeritus Professor of Theology at Fordham University where he taught for forty years. He was also visiting professor at Columbia University and NYU. From 1971 to 1975 he was President of the American Teilhard Association. During his tenure he organized a conference on Hope and the Future, which involved German and American theologians, and a conference on the ecological issues of Limits to Growth with members of the Meadows team at the New York – New Jersey Federal Trade Commission. He has presented many seminars on Teilhard in the New York area.