Ilia Delio, O.S.F. is a Senior Fellow at the Woodstock Theological Center, Georgetown University, specializing in Science and Religion, especially in the areas of evolution and ecology. She holds a doctorate in Pharmacology from UMDNJ-New Jersey Medical School and a doctorate in Historical Theology from Fordham University. Prior to Woodstock she was Professor and Chair of Spirituality Studies at Washington Theological Union. She has served on the advisory boards of the Metanexus Institute on Religion and Science and AAAS-Dialogue on Science, Ethics and Religion. She is the recipient of a Templeton Course Award (2000) and more recently, the Catholic Press Association Book Award for her book Care for Creation, which she coauthored with Keith Warner and Pamela Wood (2009). Her publications in Science and Religion involve questions in evolutionary theology, transhumanism, neurotheology, extraterrestrial life, and Christian life in evolution. She is currently working on a book that explores the influence of evolution on the shape of Christian life.
