

CATCHING FIRE!

Spiritual Transformation and Evolutionary Process: Teilhard's Vision of Becoming

Anita Wood, DMin

Wednesday Evenings

September 22, 2021 to November 17, 2021 and January 5, 2022 to February 23, 2022
6:30 pm to 8:00 EDT/EST

ZOOM event

“Catching Fire!” is a group process that blends contemplative prayer, reflection, and dialogue for the purpose of spiritual growth. It is based on Teilhard’s assumption that, when people gather together for shared purpose, they have greater potential to increase in consciousness and co-evolve society. The program consists of an orientation session and four modules of four sessions each. Each module focuses on a different Teilhardian theme.

Co-sponsored by
American Teilhard Association
Institute for Religion and Science and Chestnut Hill College

Anita Wood, DMin is a religious educator and spiritual director, who received her MEd from Boston College and her MDiv and DMin from Lancaster Theological Seminary. Anita has had successive careers in teaching, religious education administration, spiritual direction, and retreat leadership. Her work in education and spirituality with adults has led Anita to create a spiritual growth process based on evolutionary principles.

The fee for the orientation session and the first two modules, a total of 9 two-hour sessions, every Wednesday night from September 22, 2021 to November 17, 2021, EDT, is $75. The fee for the last two modules, January 5, 2022 to February 23, 2022, EST, a total of 8 two-hour sessions, is also $75, and payable in the new year.

Register here.

To submit initial payment for the program Catching Fire! send a check for $75 written to Institute for Religion to:

Kathleen Duffy, SSJ, PhD,
Director, Institute for Religion and Science
Chestnut Hill College
9601 Germantown Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19118

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing a link to the event as well as more information about the program.