The American Teilhard Association invites you to join us as we gather for our annual event, this year on Saturday, June 1, 2024 featuring John Philip Newell, Canadian and Scottish teacher of Celtic spirituality. He will be presenting via Zoom.

For those who will gather in-person at Daylesford Abbey, we will enjoy each other's company throughout the weekend with time dedicated for group discussion, contemplation, prayer, socials, and meals.

Gathered in-person, we will prepare for Newell's presentation by discussing the chapter on Teilhard from Newell's most recent book, Sacred Earth Sacred Soul.

The reading will be provided for participants in advance.

Location: We will be meeting at the Spirituality and Retreat Center at Daylesford Abbey in Paoli, Pennsylvania. The Abbey rests on over 80 acres of gorgeous countryside and features its church and chapels, comfortable amenities, Wooded Stations of the Cross, fields, streams, and abundance of wildlife. Conveniently located 30 minutes from PHL airport, the Abbey is easily accessible by SEPTA/AMTRAK.

Accommodations: Overnight rooms are fashioned with a bed, a sink and mirror, chair or desk, pillows, towels, and linens. Air conditioning and Wi-Fi are available throughout the facility. Guest floors are accessible by elevator and stairs. Bathrooms are shared, yet private. Daylesford Abbey has a limited number of accessibility-friendly rooms that must be requested in advance. Please note this in your order form upon checkout.

Meals: The meals included are listed within the package you select, below. There are planned times for refreshments and socials on Friday and Saturday in the afternoon and evening. Coffee and tea are available throughout the day.

Our kitchen staff prepares fresh meals daily for the Norbertine community and all Abbey guests.
