One of the most important capacities for those of us who wish to live a truly mystical life is the ability to see. Openness to the other and to the many sensations in our immediate surroundings deepens our ability to access the radiance of Matter's inner face as well as our capacity to respond to the Divine Presence we encounter within. As we engage passages from Teilhard's mystical writings, we come to know the Cosmic Christ as the source of all Radiance drawing the human family toward the light and stirring up passionate desire to join in the work of creation.

Kathleen Duffy, SSJ, PhD

Kathleen Duffy, SSJ is Professor Emerita of Physics at Chestnut Hill College where she directs the Institute for Religion and Science. She is President of the American Teilhard Association, former editor of Teilhard Studies, and serves on the Advisory Board of Cosmos and Creation. She has published Teilhard's Mysticism: Seeing the Inner Face of Evolution (Orbis, 2014), Teilhard's Struggle: Embracing the Work of Evolution (Orbis, 2019), an edited volume of essays entitled Rediscovering Teilhard's Fire (St. Joseph's University Press, 2010), as well as several book chapters and articles that deal with connections between Teilhard's religious essays and modern science. Kathleen also guides evening, weekend, and week-long retreats on topics related to Teilhard's life and work.
